

A Royal Ashburn wedding

Whether you have dreamed of a traditional wedding or one that is uniquely you, Royal Ashburn's expansive facilities offers a wide array of settings from intimate to breathtaking.

For further information contact:

The Royal Ashburn Wedding Experience

For over three generations, The Royal Ashburn has provided a magnificent backdrop for a lifetime of wedding memories. While traditions and styles have changed over the years, our commitment to quality and attention to detail remains at the forefront.

Beautifully appointed from top to bottom, our clubhouse welcomes you with a warmth and charm most certain to set the right ambiance for your special day. Our experienced Wedding Coordinators deliver the experience and insight you will come to rely on during the months and weeks leading up to and on your special day.

Enjoy our warm country setting and caring professional staff. Relax in the knowledge that we have the experience of four decades of Bridal service. Our beautifully landscaped bridal gardens are the perfect settings to capture tomorrow's memories.

Picture Perfect Grounds

The surrounding gardens are beautifully landscaped, terraced over the fairways of our spectacular golf course and provide the ideal backdrop for photographs. The terrace, gardens and chapel are designed with wedding parties and group photography in mind. There is no need to go elsewhere for this treasure of memories – we have it all right here!

The perfect setting

Whether you have dreamed of a traditional wedding or one that is uniquely you, Royal Ashburn's expansive facilities offer a wide array of setting from intimate to breathtaking.

The Ashburn Room

On the main level, the Ashburn Room can comfortably seat 160 guests. The sweeping bank of French doors leads you to our new solarium. With cathedral ceilings of over 20 feet, a large fireplace and 180 degree windows overlooking the golf course, this is the perfect room to host your pre-dinner reception. A terrace leads guests to the outdoor patio where they can enjoy the garden and golf course views.

The Compton Room

Completely devoted to entertaining, The Compton Room on the upper level features an adjacent sundeck and glassed-in terrace, with a spectacular view of the golf course; a perfect location to soak in the lush surroundings on a sunny day or enjoy the solitude of a starlit night. From the detailed moldings, high ceilings and elegant fixtures, no expense was spared in the construction and décor of this magnificent room. With seating for up to 240 guests, The Compton Room is a must see for any bride and groom-to-be.

The Butler's Room

Today, many brides and grooms-to-be desire a more casual wedding with close friends and family members in attendance. Our Butler's Room offers seating for up to 60 guests; a perfect atmosphere for any couple with a more intimate wedding in mind!

A Terrace Wedding

Adjacent to the Compton Room, our glassed in terrace and sun deck have hosted many intimate wedding ceremonies. The brilliant surroundings offer you a breathtaking view of the lush golf course and landscaped gardens. The solarium adjacent to the Ashburn room can also house wedding ceremonies. Perfect for winter wedding when the fireplace is on and the snow glistens outside.

A Garden Wedding

Our garden wedding ceremonies have never been more popular! The Royal Ashburn is pleased to offer a complete wedding package including the use of our gazebos and gardens for the ceremony and photos. Our two intimate ceremony venues offer a unique atmosphere of privacy and exclusivity, perfect for the exchange of vows. Both sites feature a chapel like gazebo nestled in a grove of trees. The tranquility and beauty of nature offers a wonderful feeling of romance.